HOUSING FACTS why Public Health is on the Ballot

Affordable and stable housing is a public health issue.

On the November ballot, several cities in Michigan, including Kalamazoo and Ann Arbor are considering increasing funding for affordable housing.

The Pandemic is Making it Worse

The economic toll of COVID-19 due to a response that values profit over health has caused an eviction crisis that risks pushing more people into unstable housing or lack of housing. People experiencing homelessness are twice as likely to be hospitalized, two to four times as likely to require critical care, and two to three times as likely to die from coronavirus as those who are housed.
